

2006 ELECTION RESULTS

The following two sections present the primary, runoff and general election results for the U.S. Congressional elections held in 2006. Also included are the special election results for the unexpired terms in New Jersey's 13th Congressional District, Texas' 22nd Congressional District, and the court-ordered special elections in Texas Congressional Districts 15, 21, 23, 25 and 28.

The November 2006 general election (and the December runoff elections in Texas and Louisiana) resulted in the election of the 110th Congress. The following is the party composition of the 110th Congress, as determined by the results of these elections:

U.S. Senate

Democrats: 49

Republicans: 49

Independents: 2

U.S. House of Representatives

Democrats: 233

Republicans: 202

Notes on Charts

* Runoff election vote totals have been included with the primary election totals. (For the U.S. Senate, runoff elections were held in Mississippi and Texas. For the U.S. House of Representatives, runoff elections were held in Georgia, Mississippi, Oklahoma, South Carolina and Texas.) For Louisiana and Texas, runoff election vote totals have been included with the general election totals.

The following three situations account for blank spaces in the charts and should be considered when making comparisons or drawing conclusions about the vote totals.

* In some states, i.e., Connecticut, Utah and Virginia, political parties may nominate general election candidates by party convention, rather than by primary election.

* In some states, there were unopposed candidates whose names did not appear on a ballot and therefore received no votes.

* 33 states had regularly scheduled U.S. Senate elections in 2006.
